Spring is the time of new life bursting forth, of realizing the potential inherent in warmer days and the growth of a brighter sun. The equinoxes possess light and dark in equal share in a moment's balance. Spring Equinox is the time of conception, when the solar light is ascending and overcomes darkness in its eternal dance across the sky.

Now is the time to take action; launch new projects; set new goals and directions; plant the seeds that you have nurtured, protected, and meditated upon throughout the dark, winter months. Most of all we learn how to incorporate changes into our lives. At this time of spring transformation, we are given the opportunity to start fresh, enrich the soil of our consciousness, and nurture the dreams that inspire us to soar to our highest potential.

Future Rituals: June 16 Summer Solstice; September 22 Fall Equinox; October 20 All Hallows Eve
